SASH NURSING ASSISTANT TRAINING PROGRAM

Self Advocacy Self Health (S.A.S.H.)

SASH is designed to provide the student with current training in basic nursing principles and procedures so that the student may acquire basic skills and competencies in the delivery of quality patient care. We are a non-profit, physician directed, nurse supported program with many years of expertise in health and allied health professions. Offering classroom, as well as, clinical training sessions.

Certificate of Completion

Emphasis is also placed on nursing assistant skills and functions, cultural competency and psychosocial approach to healthcare. Students who successfully complete the course requirements will receive a "Certificate of Completion" and are eligible to take the Tennessee Nurse Assistant Competency Examination to become a Certified Nursing Assistant.
